

Extract from
Att. B to
EGMA-63234
29 October 1963

12. FLEMING then went on to say that a CATIDE staffer name Friedrich FRANK had also been in the SD in Holland, and if STEIMLE could not identify PREY's picture he suggested that he show it to FRANK. He added that while FRANK had been involved in the fringes of the UJDROWSY case no evidence of wrongdoing had come to light and he had been given a clean bill of health. I told FLEMING in this case he should go ahead and show FRANK the picture. FLEMING again advised me to show the picture to [ ] and I have made arrangements with MOB to do so.
